This TOTEM POLE is a record of our first year as a Class AA high school and our first year as a campus high school. In it you will find the amusements, honors, victories, defeats, and pathos of a school with growing pains. Under the patient guidance of Mrs. Middaugh and Mr. Venturella, we have attempted to portray faithfully the epoch of a school year, one which we think will never be equaled. Thank you, Mrs. Middaugh and Mr. Venturella, and good luck to the class of 1962.

Kayettes, the largest girl's club in Bonner High, is basically a service organization. Some of its services were holiday programs for the school, Christmas gifts for orphans, and collections for CARE.

The major activity of the past year's Kayettes was a girls' football game which saw the Kayettes and the Boltonettes, coached by seniors Ray Enloe and Arthur Bolton, with one illegal touchdown apiece at the final gun. At the half of the riotous game, popular senior Chuck Shepherd was crowned King. Also the Kayettes had fun with their "Survival Party" after the first six weeks.

The Kayettes and the Hi-Y worked together on several projects.

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is selected from the top quarter of the senior class on the basis of ratings by the faculty and the students in that group themselves. Comprised of only fifteen per cent of the class, the Society represents outstanding achievements in scholastic and extracurricular activities.

THE NATIONAL BUSINESS HONOR SOCIETY

The National Business Honor Society is an honor society to which outstanding senior business students are awarded membership. These students must have excelled in other scholastic achievements as well as in business subjects. Sam Keen is the first boy in the school's history to be accorded this honor.

TOP ROW: G. Neal, J. Roark. BOTTOM ROW: E. Pollock, A. Bryant, L. Betancourt.

The Pep Club, 118 girls strong the past year, supported by Bonner's Braves by its presence at games, by yelling, and by dress; it promoted school spirit with numerous pep rallies and assemblies. The Club's money-making projects included selling "mum" corsages at the Homecoming football game and giving the "Holly Daze" (Christmas Dance).

The main project of the Pep Club was a major revision of the Club's constitution; this clarified many rules and regulations and established a solid working foundation for future years.

Homecoming Queen Connie Stewart was the Pep Club's candidate for that honor, and Leslie Betancourt, Pep Club secretary, was Christmas Queen. The work and enthusiasm of its members earned the 1961-1962 Pep Club much praise as one of the finest Pep Clubs in the area.

Hey! Watch your step!!

Man! What a crazy game.

No good!

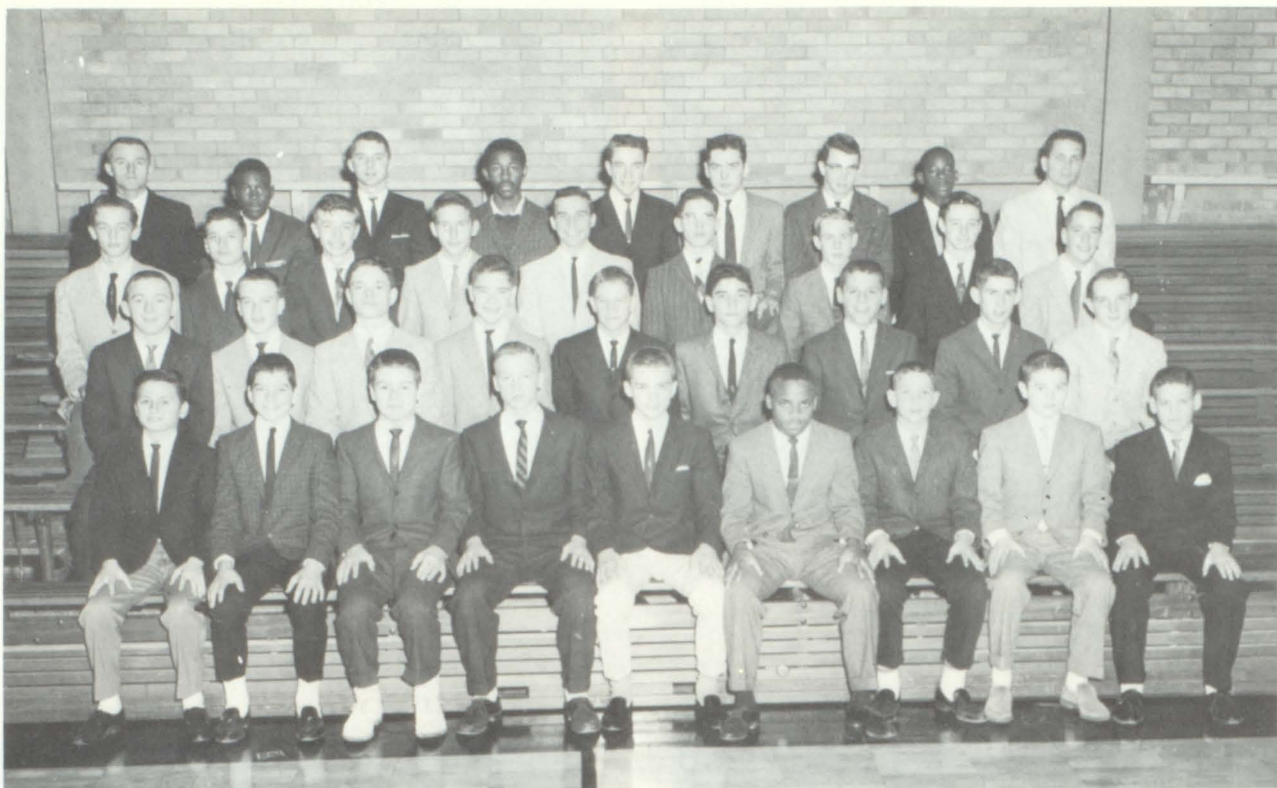

The line up!

There's nothing like a football game when it's pouring down raining!

The Braves were picked as a dark horse in the EKL race. They displayed the ability to play good football, but not good enough to win the close ones. After battling Rosedale to a draw, the Braves lost a close one to Turner, were beaten by Champs-to-be, Argentine, and yet returned to dash Olathe's co-championship hopes. The Braves tied for last place in the EKL with their 1-2-1 league record. They had a 4-2-3 overall record.

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM--FIRST ROW: B. Hynds, A. Stuchlik. SECOND ROW: Assistant Coach, Mr. Sigley, S. King, C. Brown, C. McGee, H. McConico, B. Fry, J. Nick, K. Woolf, J. Floyd, J. Meinke, R. Dunston, W. McDonald, L. McConico, Mr. Cochran, Head Coach.

The Braves had the most successful basketball season in school history, ending the season second in the EKL. As the annual went to press February 28, the Braves had a 13-5 overall record and a 4-3 league record. Captained by Herman McConico, this team of Braves left a shining example for future roundballers.

The Junior Varsity started the season lacking nothing but experience, and soon gained veteran status as they played consistently better basketball. Already a significant part of the varsity bench strength, the jayvees should provide material for future great teams of Braves. The B-Team had a 6-8 overall record and a 1-5 league record.

The Papoose roundballers showed developing talent and should brighten the Brave's teams in future years. Playing a tough schedule, the frosh had a 9-9 season record, with 2-2 league record.

Placing third in the EKL, they won third place in the league tourney at the end of the season.

Led by three seniors, the cross-country team was the most experienced quintet in the area, with four returning lettermen. Pre-season EKL Championship picks, the harriers seemed to be the first Bonner team strong enough to win this elusive honor. The Braves defeated the defending Champions in their first meet, but went on to suffer at the hands of younger, faster teams of the EKL. Handicapped by shinsplints, and twisted ankles, the runners felt their improvements come hard in a season shortened by bad weather and a new league ruling. By meets held on its own new course in Lions City Park (considered the roughest in the league) the team forced itself into contention, within easy striking distance of the currently top club. The EKL League Meet, however, was the biggest upset in the league's history and Bonner Springs captured only fourth (although John Papineau set a league record - 10:06).
