E.T., The extraterrestrial, made its first appearance in 1982 and sent the country into a big love affair with an 800 year old gnome from outerspace. Nothing would ever be the same again.

X has always marked the spot for anything and everything. In the 1983 Totem Pole it marks the spot where a class of 163 teenagers grew up together and recorded the process forever.

Time—the past, the present and the future are represented here.

Time—the past is represented by the record of the events as they happened this year.

Time—the present is represented by our "now" signing of the book and giving each other messages of our feelings.

Time—the future when we will open the book and let out the Pandora box of memories.

Reminiscence or recall—is the express purpose of this book. The pictures and copy in this book are to trigger your memory so that there will be a flood of recollections of the fun we had in the halls of Bonner Springs High School.

Adolescence—We have just taken that quantum step from adolescence to adulthood when we will become the citizens we have been taught to be by our caring parents and dedicated teachers.

Adventure—How we enter into the adventures of life to be enjoyed, challenged, responded to, cried over, laughed over and forever thought of as a grand adventure.

THE EXTRA-TERRESTRIAL

The 1982-83 Totem Pole has been put together by a group of aware students who have tried to bring together the spirit of a group of energetic young people who cared for each other and grew up together. Hopefully that process has been recorded in these pages for you.

New junior high appears from space and funds

From school lunches to wild romances senior life can be fun!

Classes seem to be full of excitement from day to day.

HOMECOMING ROYALTY

The 1982-83 Homecoming Queen was Traci Surritte, the Pep Club candidate. Class attendants were: Jami Creten, Junior class, Erin Phillips, Sophomore class and Lisa Loften, Freshman class. Senior runner's up were: Chris Seaton, B-Club candidate, and Nancy Nickle, Senior Class Representative. The candidates and attendants represent student choices for their Homecoming festivities.

Traci Surritte, Homecoming Queen, smiles happily as she oversees the festivities.

The six beauties of the Bonner student body look out at the football game.

In the float construction contest, the Junior Class "Rack 'Em Up" came victoriously in first place, with the seniors running a close second with "Spare No Bears."

The parade was one of the events of Homecoming, with each organization participating. Above: The 1982-83 football team shows school spirit by riding the Big Red.

Below: The sophomore float came in third place with "Bale the Bears." The bear laid helpless and unable to defend its self. To the right: The Freshmen were last but not least.

Showing school spirit, the senior class unites together to produce a truck full of orange power.

Braves Scalp Turner Bear 34-0

The braves scalped Turner 34-0 during the Homecoming game, September 18. The spirit from the crowd kept the boys playing.

The Braves are in their formation and Randy Reed hikes the ball graciously to Hughes Suffren for Bonner's first TD.

What a rush to tackle our opponent, Turner Bears. The conflict between Bonner and Turner makes the crowd roar.

Waiting calmly with a prayer, the braves hope there isn't a penalty called. Rob Stewart kisses the ground for mercy.

Above: Our boys show us their straight line to kick off to Turner. Braves on the sideline cheer on their teammates. Joel Sawalich relaxes after rushing 15 times for 571 yards.

The Dummy Burns Up in Smoke

The Bon-Fire and the Class Olympics was a success to show power and the school spirit against their Homecoming opponent (Turner Bears). The football players watch over the fun as the dummy burns. Bonner Braves let out roars as they burn the Bear in effigy on a beautiful fall night.

To the left you see a few of the students lighting matches to their enemy. The process was slow, but sure to become ashes.

"Burn Baby Burn," was the saying as the flames went up into the air. Everyone surrounded the helpless bear.

"Oh doctor, how much I love thee."

Wilson uses his electrifying personality to tell Myrtle Mae he loves her.

Parents follow teen school day

Tables covered with yearbooks, spirit pins, candy bars, and film projectors lined the Commons Area on October 26, 1982, the night of BSHS Open House. Parents, who were organized enough to arrive early, paraded down the hall to examine various club displays. At 7:00 the mimes began to assemble the parents in the auditorium to hear Mr. Stokesbury's welcoming speech. As parents lived out their child's normal school day on a smaller scale, they found the desks to be uncomfortable and the stairs torture. Third hour brought role call, many absent parents, and unexcusable tardies. Those students and parents who attended, experienced an enjoyable evening, ending in the lunchroom with cinnamon rolls and beverages.

Various clubs set up tables at Open House, pictured above, Lori Harris and Rhonda Newton tend to the FHA display. Meanwhile, below, a parent studies her child's schedule during class time.

Debaters argue the issues

A relative small squad, each of these debaters placed this season. Kevin Ritchie and Susan Brazeal received first place at Wyandotte High School Tournament. Kathy Thorn and Dixie Swegle received 4th place at Blue Valley Tournament. Not shown, Patrick Kelley and Stan Thompson received 2nd place at the Olathe South Tournament. Below from l. to r., Kevin Ritchie and Patrick Kelley are the departing seniors of the squad. Dixie Swegle is a returning letterman on the squad.

Although the squad was quite small and was mostly made of novices, the 82 season was pretty successful. Thanks to the teacher, Mrs. Foote and a special thanks to Mr. Clark who spent most of weekends with the squad.

"83" an extravaganza for Thespians

The Thespians Troupe #174 has had a most successful year. They have had a variety of activities, ranging from the "mime-mobile" that was entered in the Homecoming parade to the second annual flower sale. Other activities included: troupe mimes at Open House, troupe members working concessions at home games, and supporting the drama department in going to the shows and helping to buy new equipment for the theatre.

From Gary, Indiana to Bonner Springs

This year Mr. Laurel Griffith brought a talented group of teens in front of and behind the spotlight. With a cast of nearly sixty members, The Music Man entertained audiences March 11th and 12th, with singing, dancing, humor, and dramatics. Behind the scenes, a crew of almost thirty people set the stage, ran lights, primed actors and actresses for their entrances, and informed the public of the musical that would fill the high school auditorium.

Wrestle to fifth

Five wrestlers advanced to State and earned Bonner fifth in Class 5A. John Ross and James Shevling were runners-up at State while David Blackwell placed third. Mike Holloway finished fourth. Ryan Smith competed but didn't place. The Braves placed second in the EKL. Six individual championships were won by Blackwell, Dan Burns, Holloway, Ross, Shevling, and Smith. Competing in the Park Hill Invit. for the first time, Bonner claimed second and two championships—Holloway and Smith. Second-year Coach Riik Bailey led the varsity squad to a 9-2 dual record and the junior varsity to a 17-3 dual record. Six seniors boosted the squad to these accomplishments. They are: Devin Corcoran, Greg Hand, Victor McDonald, John Ross, Don Rousselo, and Chris Shell.

Senior John Ross compiled a career record of 51-9-1. In 1983, John earned these championships; Sub-State, Regionals, EKL, and Bonner Invit. Runner-up at State, he finished 1983 with a 27-2 record in the 185 lbs. division.

Don Rousselo, a four year letterman, recorded a 19-26-1 career mark. In 1983, Don compiled a 8-16 record.

French Club, Excellent

The French and Spanish Clubs get together for their annual picnic each year. Participants are: Michelle Nelson, Marcia Nelson, French club sponsor, Amy Redd and Tammy Stephans, Spanish club sponsor.

There were 25 members in French Club in "83". Projects for raising funds were candy sales and concession stands. In December, members met with the Spanish club for a Christmas party. On a cold April evening, the French Club members again met with the Spanish Club for a picnic at Wyandotte Park. The members decided to combine the French and Spanish Clubs for the following year and met to discuss the constitution at the final meeting of the year. Part of the funds will be used to purchase a typewriter for the foreign language department. The French club has reached its zenith, under the heading of Mrs. Marcia Nelson. Because of the club's merger with the Spanish club, she will not be the sole sponsor of the new club. Thanks Mrs. Nelson!

French club members for "83" are as follows: Bridgette Anderson, Geri Bowers, Emily Thomas, Simon Parks, Kevin Ritchie, Liz Hale, Julie Rhem, Amy Reed, Susan Jordan, Joe Sechrist, Lisa Goins, Ronda Fox, Linda Anderson, Mary Berlin, Sophia De Leon, Patty Albertson and Nancy Snavelly.

Entertaining together

Also pictured here is Senior Night, 1983. The Bonnerettes once again stun the crowd with bright smiles, perfected techniques, and overall good performance. The girls honored their senior members after performing by presenting them with roses as a token of appreciation.

Below: "I've Got My Finger on the Trigger" had to be one of the most unique performances of the Bonnerettes. It consisted of Russian splits, sharp turns, perfected jumps, total rhythm, and even a back flip. The girls are showing their best of personality after an inspiring performance.

What do the Bonnerettes want? Well, we asked them and each said, "I want muscles." Here they are, displaying their "muscles."

Is this 1983? No, it's 1999! The Bonnerettes participated in a state wide clinic conducted at Olathe South. They are shown after performing their Jazz entry "1999." They also entered in the pompon category with "Finger on the Trigger," and the novelty category in which they performed a colorful western.

ACHIEVEMENTS

DIVISION

1983 Citizen of the Year—Victoria Burns

One of the most prestigious awards is the Citizenship Award. The criteria for the award include such measurements as respect for the flag, Constitution and National Anthem, as well as respect for fellow students, community, property and religious convictions of others. The Award includes responsibility to build school pride and assume citizenship responsibilities. And finally, a reverence and concern for life. Vickie has demonstrated these traits in abundance.

Victoria likes to show her intelligence and knowledge. Quite frequently Vickie is caught in the library reading up on the latest subject.

Vickie, short for Victoria, enjoys nature as well as studying in book.

Extra-Ordinary Scholars

The class of 83, is proud to announce that they have three Valedictorians Becca Berning, Kim Palmberg, and Sheri Leitzen. With grade point average of 4.00, and one Salutatorian, Victoria Burns running a close grade point average of 3.961 throughout their prep education.

Valedictorian and Salutatorian

The Seniors presented an assembly to the student body February 4. The activities centered around trips through different times. The athletes that played in football and basketball were acting as cave men. Then they took you to the far west to where the cowboys were training the students how to rope mid air. Following the cowboy act was the western dancers.

Once again the time changed to the exotic space cosmic cheerleaders. All of these different skits combined together for a big success.

with an exciting school assembly

Embarrassing and exciting moments for seniors.

During the Senior Dinner, which was held in the commons, on April 25, the seniors shared each others embarrassing and exciting moments that was thought to be private and not public. Such as to the left the idea of swimming without a swimsuit was Shelley Carson's way of cooling off. To the right, Patrick Kelley presents the time for Kevin Ritchie to give his astonishing laugh. Some of the students were set up by there so called friends, but at the end of the fun and laugh, love was shown throughout the senior class.

The seniors share intimate moments toward one another, by spilling the beans that never was told but never forgotten. Sharing and caring was the name of the game. Below: Mr. Stokesbury, principal, expresses his gratitude to the class of 83, appreciating the leadership being led by the seniors and congratulations on a job well done.

Below: The famous trio sings sweet nothings to Lorre Criswell as she admires the singing.

Acapella makes the evening special by setting the mood for the Seniors. Rev. Bob Farthing preaches the sermon with fire.

Graduates Excel to the Top

Becki Benard, an usher, leads anticipating seniors to their seats. An overview on the class of 83, during commencement makes the atmosphere glorious. The seniors contemplate what they will do after graduation. Above right several of the seniors give audience to the address of the valedictorian and salutatorian. Many of the graduating seniors, such as Roy Nunn, Charles O'Brien, Jacquelyn Owens, and Kimberly Palmberg, think of the journey ahead. The band renders music during the commencement exercise.

GOOD LUCK

The graduates wait until all are in position. The faculty watches the oncoming graduates with enthusiasm, as they fill their places.

Above: A serious time during commencement take place as everyone silently prays for the departure of the graduates.

The seniors recall the happy moments shared together, that would truly be missed. To the right: The caps were released as the 1983 graduating class were pronounced high school graduates.

EXCITING TOSSES UP

Above: Nancy Nickells receives her diploma with pride. Below: These four ladies made the evening special. The Valedictorians and Salutarians. Below at the left: Tim Storey and Patty Stoneking bow their heads in reference to God during the invocation at commencement.

Lori Alexander presents the gift from the class of '83' to Mr. Ken Tewell, School Superintendent of district 204. The teachers arrive.

Angie Who? Brag on Me!

I'm sweet and neat and can't be beat.

I'm pure as gold and also bold
But after me, God broke the mold.

I clown a lot, but very mean
I'm very tidy and also clean.

Without me the world would be dull
Cause I wouldn't be here to spread the bull.

You've had 16 years of teaching
16 years of cheers
16 years, of now retiring
Bonner will miss you, my dear.

Thanks Students
for a great year

We come to the end of another school year, one that was started with great expectations. The comradeships, the activities, the daily goings and comings had a spirit to them that kept us happily involved in school activities. The expectations were realized in most cases. The participation in school activities seemed to be more enthusiastic than ever. The dynamic energy of the Class of '83 vibrated throughout the halls of Bonner High and memories were made, friends were cherished, teachers were enjoyed and the school year was an experience.

A special thanks goes to Mrs. Wind, who was dedicated in her work, Mrs. Oden, who helped when Mrs. Wind couldn't be here.
